Bullying Prevention

Beverly Hills Unified School District is saying YES to Student Empowerment and NO to bullying. Our schools will participate in a bullying prevention program on the following dates:

September 17th- El Rodeo

September 18th- Hawthorne School

September 20th- Beverly Vista and Horace Mann

JUST SAY YES is an organization that focuses on student empowerment. This program has proven to significantly reduce bullying. BHUSD is working with JUST SAY YES to put an end to bullying and its harmful effects. The program will teach our students how to avoid bullying and how to actively discourage bullies. The speakers will share facts along with personal experience to reach students with a powerful and personal message.
